See history through the eyes of America's greatest reporter

No one has seen history like Walter Cronkite. No one has ever had the insight, the access, the influence or the sheer credibility. Now, for the 1st time ever, Walter Cronkite gives us his last look back on the biggest stories of his career. And he shares his personal story, how he felt as he saw those great moments unfold.

(In the video window, show Cronkite, not Kennedy)

Cool idea: Have the clip start with the famous words: “This is Walter Cronkite...”

Let Walter Cronkite explain the real story

At last—you'll get more than the facts and dates. You'll get the personal insights of a front-row insider for the most important moments of recent history:

- The Great Depression
- Rise of the Mafia
- Two World Wars
- Racing to the Moon
- The Bay of Pigs
- Fighting for Civil Rights
- Who Killed the Kennedys?
- Watergate
- Fall of the Berlin Wall
- Plus Cronkite's pivotal break with Robert McNamara and President Nixon over Vietnam!
